1. Visiting Rights

Financial full playing Members shall be entitled to the equivalent membership rights, at either Club, for a period not exceeding 30 days in a calendar year. Any visiting member of the Reciprocal Club shall be entitled to all the privileges to the golf course and other facilities usually given to its own Members in the category of Membership which is closest to the rights and privileges to which the visiting Member is entitled at his/her home Club.

Visiting reciprocal members may play in Club competitions on payment of the prescribed competition fee but they cannot win major competitions such as monthly medals, match play knockout events, club championships or any other event considered, by the home club, to be of a major nature.

Visiting reciprocal members must produce an introductory letter as well as a current membership card or other identification, which is to include currency and category of membership, as well as current handicap. Visiting Members shall be subject to all Rules, By Laws and other controls in effect at the time of their visit.

No visitor's fee or green fee shall be charged to the Reciprocal Member, except in the case where the Club concerned charges its members a separate green fee in addition to their annual subscriptions.

Each Reciprocal Member may introduce visitors in accordance with the Club's normal visitor policy and such visitor(s) shall pay the normal green fee applicable to a guest playing with a Full Member.

2. Membership

Upon transfer of a member's residence interstate, a member shall have the right to make application for membership to the reciprocal Club in that State. The application must be accompanied by a letter from the General Manager of the home club setting out the Club's approval of such application. Each Committee shall then consider such application on its merits and without obligation.

If at the time of application to the recipient Club, pursuant to this agreement, there is a vacancy in the relevant category, the applicant shall receive priority over other applicants for membership to that category. Pending admission to membership the recipient club shall grant playing rights on such conditions and subject to such fees as the Committee of the recipient Club shall determine. A person elected to membership by a reciprocal Club under the terms of this agreement must pay, in addition to the pro rata subscription, the prescribed full entrance fee applicable to that club.
