1. Subject to such qualifications, restrictions and limitations contained herein, the following reciprocal rights for the specified categories of members are hereby arranged and agreed between The Brisbane Golf Club Inc and Portsea Golf Club herein referred to as the "Reciprocal Clubs".
2. All members with playing rights at either Reciprocal Club shall have full playing rights at the other Reciprocal Club, without payment of the Club's normal competition fee. "Green Fees" will not be charged, for a period not to exceed one month at any one time.
3. For the purpose of 1 and 2 above "full playing rights" are defined as rights to:
  - Play golf at any time when the course is open for play, subject to such restrictions as may exist from time to time as decided by the Match Sub Committee in relation to the use of the Course during social or competitive play; and
  - Play in a Club competition and win a trophy, subject to payment of the prescribed competition entry fee; but not win Club Championships, Monthly Medal or Honour Board events, and have access to all available facilities and amenities of the Club subject to such conditions relating to the use therefore as may exist from time to time.
  - Introduce guests and pay the fee applicable. Upon obtaining prior approval from the Secretary of the host Club a visiting member is entitled to introduce up to three guests at any one time. A guest may be introduced to either Club to a maximum of seven times per calendar and cannot be introduced on a Saturday.
4. All visiting members shall be required to show proof of membership and current handicap, on request.
5. A member, if transferred interstate shall upon submission of a written introduction from his home club, have his name submitted for election to membership at the first available meeting of the committee and if elected the applicant shall pay the applicable subscription in accordance with the constitution and by-laws of the Club without having to pay a further Entrance Fee. Should a member enjoy only restricted playing rights of his home club, then they can only be elected to an equivalent, or lower, category of membership. A person so nominated shall not be placed on any waiting list of applicants for membership.
6. Member of either Reciprocal Club are admitted to the other Club under the general terms and conditions prescribed in the Constitution, By-laws and Rules or other authoritative instructions of the Reciprocal Club. Any expenses incurred during the visit must be paid for immediately.

7. We, the undersigned, being persons properly authorised to commit The Brisbane Golf Club Inc and the reciprocal Club to reciprocal arrangements, do hereby declare that this agreement shall come into force until amended as may be mutually agreed between the Clubs or cancelled by either Club on giving six (6) months notice in writing to the other Club.
