Subject to such qualifications, restrictions and limitations contained herein, the following reciprocal rights for the specified categories of members are hereby arranged and agreed between The Brisbane Golf Club Inc and The Kew Golf Club herein referred to as the "Reciprocal Clubs"

Permanent Transfer Of Membership

1. Written request from Home Club, providing members details including contact details, current handicap, category of membership, financial status and general reference.
2. Written request from Member concerned, seeking reciprocity.
3. Member seeking transfer must have been a financial playing member of the Home Club for a minimum of two years immediately prior to requesting permanent transfer.
4. Transfer under this Agreement is subject to the agreement of the Committee of the Club to which transfer is requested. Transfer will effected at the same membership category (or its nearest equivalent) as that held in the previous club.
5. A person elected to membership by a Reciprocal Club under the terms of this Agreement must pay, in addition to the pro rata annual subscription and any other associated costs, the difference in the prescribed Entrance Fee between the two clubs.

Temporary Visiting Rights

1. All members with playing rights at either reciprocal Club shall have reciprocal playing rights as Visiting Temporary Members at the other Club, without payment of visitor's fees, for a period not to exceed one month, at any one time. Reciprocal playing rights are defined as follows:
 - a. Play golf at any time when the course is open to play, subject to such restrictions as decided by the Committee.
 - b. Playing rights at the reciprocal Club be equivalent to that at the home Club.
 - c. Play in a Club competition and win a trophy, subject to payment of the prescribed competition entry fee; but not to win a Club Championship, Monthly medal or Honour Board events, and have access to all available facilities and amenities of the Club subject to such conditions as set by the committee.
2. All visiting members shall be required to show proof of membership and handicap upon arrival.
