RECIPROCAL PLAYING RIGHTS AGREEMENT BETWEEN

Mount Lawley Golf Club (Inc)
Western Australia, Australia

&

Brisbane Golf Club (Inc)
Queensland, Australia

The following Terms of Reference shall apply to this Agreement.

1. Each of the undersigned Clubs shall extend to any visiting Member of the other Club all the rights and privileges related to the golf course and other Club facilities usually given to its own Members, according to the category of membership which most closely approximates the visiting Members category at his/her Home Club.
2. A visiting member exercising visiting playing rights at a host club may do so on not more than six (6) occasions in any calendar year without having to pay 'green fees' and are not required to play with or be accompanied by a Member of the host club.
3. Clubhouse and Professional shop goods and services contracted, shall be settled at time of the visit either by cash or an acceptable credit card, or may be forwarded to the home club, providing that the host club has received a letter of authorisation guaranteeing payment by visitor's club.
4. An introduction of a visiting member must be sent to the General Manager/CEO from his/her counterpart, as much in advance as practical, indicating the likely date and duration of the visit. Tee times can then be made through the Professional Shop. Proof of membership will be required. Evidence of the current handicap shall be required should the visiting member wish to participate in those local Club tournaments as permitted by the Match Committee.
5. With the prior approval of the host Club General Manager/CEO, visiting members may introduce one guest at the Guest of Member green fee rate.
6. Regulations with respect to dress code, care of the course and tee time restrictions, as they apply to each course, form part of this agreement.
7. A visiting member is eligible to enter minor golf competitions conducted by the host club but may not enter major club competitions (Board Events) or any perpetual trophy event.
8. This agreement shall remain in force until termination by either party giving notice in writing.
